Board Member

Ingrid Rosten has many years of experience as an incubator supporting the acceleration of startups through her Venture Studio, Technovate, based in N. California and Europe. She work with startups in a variety of industries from Energy to Healthcare to Lifestyle. Working day-to-day with companies to grow, locate funding, find partners and all the necessary supply chain building processes.

She finds reward in seeing ventures succeed and grow as a result of this education and networking. Having lived abroad for many years, Ingrid has good proficiency in both French and Spanish. Her key strengths include the ability to create strategic relationships, and her appreciation of business innovation, education, and world cultures. Ingrid is extremely passionate about supporting women and children. She leads the largest chapter in the region for Together Women Rise in Rancho Cordova empowering women and their children in countries around the world. She also values working with local organizations to help the underprivileged in our immediate communities which is why she joined Fitrah's mission.
